WEEKLY GRINDERS

ANITA GRYND

Gainesville, Fla. ripper and super-freestyler, Rodney Mullen, joined many other Sensation Basin regulars in a parade down the main drag of town to welcome Santa Claus.

They managed to turn a humdrum march into a spectacular event. A variety of 360's, kick flips, space walks, Mutt hops and more, kept the crowds in each corner in sheer amazement.

The JETWAY PARK in Memphis, Tenn., and COSMIC WAVE in Kalamazoo, Mich. want everybody to know that they've closed for the winter but will be opening sometime in May. So don't despair you local rippers, keep your board next to you wherever you go 'cause there may be a bit of skateable concrete to satisfy your needs and keep reading SKAT'N NEWS to keep up on the latest in the skateboarding scene.

The "Grind some time" for Muscular Dystrophy Skateboard Skatathon went extremely well as we hear from ASTRO SPEEDWAY Skatepark in Jenison, Michigan. Over 60 skaters skated from 8am to 8pm to help raise money to fight the terrifying disease. The ASTRO SPEEDWAY people would like to thank all the skaters and parents, some which drove over 400 miles to help make the event a success. Also lending a hand with the event was Kryptonics from Boulder, Colorado which gave away some neat prizes.

A good way to keep skateboarding alive and in the limelight during the cold months is to promote or help out in community affairs and charities, where mass media exposure is readily available. [It can't hurt.

ASTRO SPEEDWAY wants us to note that they'll be holding this "Country's First BMX Pool & Pipe Riding Contest" on February 4, 1980.

While we think it's not the first time it's been done, it's certainly great that they're exposing that part of the country to the great uses of a skateboard park. BMX riders have been stoked riding some of the West Coast Parks like Big O, Runway, SkaterCross, and others for sometime.

The ASTRO event entry is $3.50 advance and $5.00 day of the event. Call Bryan Stone (457-5089) for info.

Z-COPER is the newest item from the Z-PRODUCTS CO. in Santa Monica. The coper will fit most major trucks and sizes. TRACKER Trucks, INDY's, ENERGY, Gull Wing and possibly others. The item will be packaged in sizes and it should retail for about $2.50 ea. The material for the coper is made out of the same material that they make the Z-RAILS and is now available.

SKATEBOARDING HAS MADE THE OLYMPICS! Well almost. In fact, under the EXPLORER Olympic program, this year for the first time, there will be a skateboarding event in the Explorer Olympics. We'll have more details in our next issue, but in the mean time, call your local Explorer Post exec.

and ask him.

By the way, the Explorer Scouts are the only organization allowed by the Olympic Committee to use and award exact replicas of the famous Olympic medals.

A young man by the name of Ken McNeil was caught red-handed, allegedly ripping off the SENSATION BASIN Pro Shop. The State Attorney now has the case for trial. He was not a Skater, but someone who can give skateboarders a bad rap.

ASPO # 3, to be held at Skate City, Whittier on Jan 12, was postponed by rain and moved ahead one week to Jan. 19. Coverage and results will be moved ahead as well to our next issue. ASPO # 4 is still scheduled for Feb. 2 at BIG O, Orange, the day before their big PRO/AM. Skaters who entered the ASPO event on Saturday, the day before, will receive a discount for the Pro/Am. There's also a PRO Girls Class.

The APPLE "Egg Bowl" contest drew a lot of people from far away places. There were skaters from Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Akron, Columbus, Cherry Hill, which made it appealing to spectators to watch the different regional styles.

LACE SAVERS, the "hot" new item from WALL PRO-SHOXX, is now available. Hard to believe that some skaters go through a pair of shoe laces a day. The LACE SAVERS will help your budget for other things.

The rains just missed the Southern California area by one day. The Christmas Holidays officially ended on Jan 6, 1980. The rains came on Jan 7th.

been closed for at least one week. Which really puts things into perspective, when you consider that parks in Northern California and most parks East of the Rockies have to bear worse conditions, the week or so in So Cal is not bad at all.

Manufacturers/Sponsors who have been supporting the various Pro events, are now threatening dropping any kind of support unless the event, rules and running of the contest is clearly spelled out prior to the day of the event. Z-FLEX, N.H.S. and VARIFLEX and others have made it very clear that they'll not support or enter any of their skaters unless, they know before hand how the contest is going to run.

Slalom energies are again high in the Upland/Colton area, the Inland Empire as it's sometimes referred, and to prove it, both the Colton Ranch and Pipeline Skateparks challenged each other in a "round-robin" type of competition.

Under the sponsorship of the respective EXPLORER Posts in each park, the event was first held at the Colton Ranch.

It was meant as a "fun" event but also became more than just "fun" when it came down to actual competition.

There's a natural rivalry, since both parks are within 15 miles of each other and each boasting the better skaters.

Today, the Pipeline Teams emerged winners overall by scoring 10 Overall pts. versus 8 points for Colton.

Pipeline fielded more skaters than Colton and that may account for their edge in the overall totals.

Next meet will be held at the Pipeline on January 20.

One of the nice things about this series is that Pros are involved and although the money is considerably less than a normal Pro event, they still compete and have a good time.

Perhaps this is the way of the future?

WRAPS #2 (Wild & Radical Party Session)
At SENSATION BASIN, Gainesville, Fla. Nov.24,1979

Eat on turkey day...SKATE on Saturday(Nov.24) was the opening promo line for this year's WRAPS 2, and judging by the amount of energy expelled Saturday, there must have been a lot of turkey eaten on turkey day.

Over thirty of Florida's top-rated amateurs and pros turned out for an unusually warm Thanksgiving weekend to compete in the final contest of the year hosted by Sensation Basin.

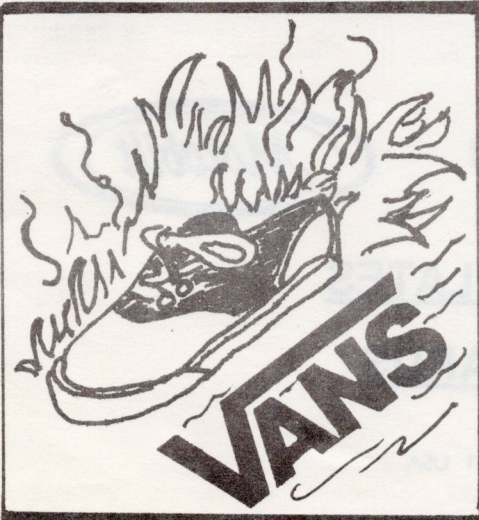

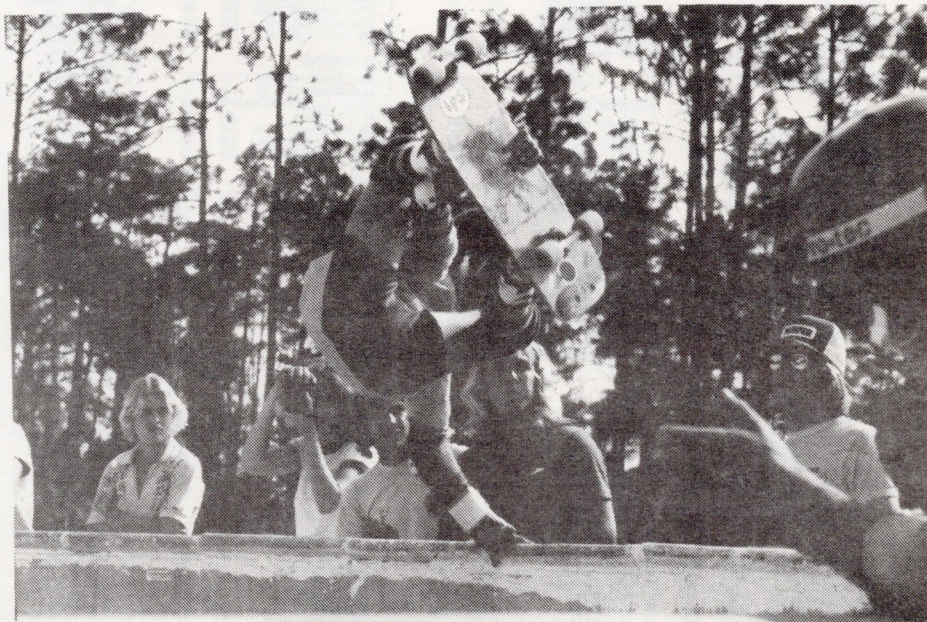

The WRAPS Contest, which represents the advancement of bowl riding during the past year, is a high-energy event because the skaters are expected to perform their best tricks, all in 45 sec.

Selection of maneuvers with the highest degree of difficulty is a must to earn big points.

Also, there was an "aerial" contest held for the first time that stoked the skaters and amazed spectators.

The event was co-sponsored by ACS, Gull Wing, G & S, Kryptonics, Norcon, Powell, Rector, SIO, Sims, Southeastern Sales & Distrib., Tracker, Tuflex, Walker and Wendy's Old Fashion Hamburgers.
